

ASSA Academy @ Lunch presents Grief and Loss: Emotions we feel but struggle to deal with

Following on from Dr Gordon Isaacs' very well received seminar on Grief and Loss in November 2021, the Academy is bringing you two lunchtime sessions covering the topic.

In this two-part series we will present a case study which will be circulated to all who register before the first session. The first session will unpack our responses to the study and the second will elaborate on the nuanced set of experiences the case study revealed, wherein we deal with different forms of bereavement and loss.

Dates and times:

- 10 March, 13:00 -14:00
- 17 March, 13:00 -14:00

This is a free series which is funded by the ASSA Academy.

Please respond by 8 March so that you can receive the case study.
