

2019 Convention

22 - 23 October

Sandton Convention Centre, Johannesburg

Keynote Speakers Announcement

The Convention Organising Committee is excited to announce that in addition to Professor Sarah Harper, Adam Ikdal and Rapelang Rabana will be featured as keynote speakers at this year's Convention. Please see their bios below:

Adam Ikdal

Adam S. Ikdal is a Senior Partner and Managing Director in the Johannesburg office of The Boston Consulting Group and has been the Office Administrator since 2014. He has a M.Sc. degree in economics from the Norwegian School of Economics and Business Administration (NHH), specialising in finance and strategy. Some of Adam's project experience includes the proposal of developing an IT transformation strategy for a South African bank, supporting digitalisation efforts for a large African retail bank and defining and implementing an Agile Transformation effort at the insurance business of a South African financial services group. Adam will be speaking at this year's Convention about his experience in the industry as well as sharing relevant insights into the global trends that might fundamentally change the future of insurance, including for actuaries.

Rapelang Rabana

Featured on the cover of ForbesAfrica magazine before the age of 30, selected as a FastCompany Maverick, named Entrepreneur for the World by the World Entrepreneurship Forum and selected as a Young Global Leader by the World Economic Forum - Rapelang is an internationally lauded technology entrepreneur. From her first startup, straight out of university, Yeigo, to Chief Digital Officer at one of South Africa's largest IT companies, Rapelang has amassed over 13 years' experience building tech. She is currently the Founder and Chair of Rekindle Learning, a dynamic learning-tech company providing smart learning applications that improve learning outcomes.
